

was held under the chairmanship of Deputy Commissioner Hyderabad Fuad Ghaffar Soomro at Shahbaz Hall today.

The SSP Abdul Salam Sheikh, senior officials of Pakistan Army and Rangers attended the meeting.

Addressing the meeting, Deputy Commissioner Fuad Ghaffar Soomro appealed to Shia scholars and representatives of Shia organizations to implement the SOPs issued by the government during the third dangerous wave of Coronavirus and protect your loved ones from getting infected with the virus and not to take out processions as per government orders and ensure holding of majalis with SOPs. He said that Yaum-e-Ali could be celebrated with devotion and respect.

SSP Hyderabad Abdul Salam Sheikh appealed to all scholars and leaders of Shia organizations to extend all possible cooperation to the administration and said that it was the duty of the administration to use all its resources to uphold the rule of law.

Shia scholars and leaders of different Shia organizations assured their full support in this regard.

Hyderabad traders reject new business hours

RECORDER REPORT
HYDERABAD: Hyderabad Chamber of Commerce and Industry's working committee meeting regarding new business hours from 6 am to 2 pm was held under the chairmanship of its president Fahad Hussain Sheikh.

The traders informed the meeting that the new business hours from 6 am to 2 pm made it difficult for the people to shop for Ramadan and Eid. They termed the new timings of business as anti-business act and injustice with Hyderabad traders as unlike in the whole country there is two different laws in Hyderabad.

They said enforcement of such law in Hyderabad is equal to sabotage business activities. They said business community is bound to implement the SOPs in every ways. They said that traders are suffering huge losses due to lack of business activities and they appealed to the district administration to allow business activities in Hyderabad like other cities in the province so that the people could shop for necessities of life with ease.

He wondered why PML-N candidate Mifath Ismail celebrated his 'victory' at 9pm even before the announcement of by-poll results. He said all results were put on twitter and they corroborated the results on Form 45. He said PPP was not in competition with PML-N rather its competition was with TLP whose candidate at one point was ahead of PPP's candidate during vote count-

SAU launches agricultural science magazine

RECORDER REPORT
HYDERABAD: The agricultural journal "Monthly Agricultural Science" has been launched from Sindh Agriculture University (SAU); Vice Chancellor Dr Fateh Marri inaugurated the online edition of the first issue.

Addressing to inaugural event Dr Fateh Marri said that there was an urgent need of scientific magazine like "Monthly Agricultural Science" based on modern agricultural subjects like agricultural research, information technology, livestock, social sciences, crop science and other agriculture related subjects, for technology transfer and awareness of new information to the farmers, scholars and students of the university.

Dr Marri said that this magazine will provide guidance to farmers, students, teachers, researchers and agricultural extension workers in the province and put country on a path of new development in agriculture sector. The magazine will play an important role in imparting knowledge of modern agricultural science to the concerned stakeholders, although the magazine caters to the needs of modern agricultural scientific journals.

Vice Chancellor urged that the magazine should include research articles by teachers and experts, and research articles by students of the University, as well as experts who have rendered distinguished services.

The Vice Chancellor appreciated the efforts of Dr Jan Mohammad Marri, Dean Faculty of Crop Protection as Magazine Patron and Dr Bhai Khan Solangi, Editor-in-Chief and Prof Mohammad Mithal Jiskani Managing Editor of the Magazine and commended them for continuing such services.

On this occasion, Prof Jan Muhammad Marri and Dr Bhai Khan Solangi briefed the Vice Chancellor about the magazine.
