

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE (ESG) POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1. Environmental, social and governance (ESG) policy include processes and procedures which focus on non-financial performance indicators that address a company's approach towards responsible investment, sustainability, its impact on society and the environment, as well as other ethical and corporate governance considerations.

1.2. Environmental

The depletion of natural resources and the threat of climate change have raised concerns about the environment and the potential financial impact on businesses. Sustainable options are increasingly being considered as part of investment choices such as better resource management and waste minimization.

1.3. Social

Inclusion, diversity, sustainability, transparency and equality are becoming more important considerations in relation to the way in which businesses operate and can generate competitive advantage; with these areas attracting increasing scrutiny from a range of stakeholders. In particular, there are increasing commercial benefits for businesses which have inclusive and diverse work ethics and practices; and we look at the impact a company has on its employees, local communities and society such as promoting the welfare of employees / others by donating a generous portion of money for education of their children, providing assistance during any natural disaster affecting the area such as the pandemic.

1.4. Governance

Governance covers the rights and responsibilities of the management of a company, its structures, corporate values, ethics and accountability processes.
